

Genomic Tools for Conservation: a Practitioner's Guide

Application form:

Please fill in and forward to Prof. Adriana Vella at adriana.vella@um.edu.mt placing G-Bike Training School Malta application in the subject of the email sent with the filled-in application. Applications Deadline: December 8th 2019.

First Name:

Family Name:

Institution:

Country

email:

(years since you obtained a PhD): Holding a PhD is absolutely not necessary for applying

Send a Motivation letter with the following mandatory sections:

- i. Briefly describe your role/ contribution in conservation
- ii. Expected benefits from this workshop
- iii. Do you have opportunity to sum up this workshop to colleagues? Where and how?
- iv. Are you involved in policy making?
- v. What case(s) would you bring to this Training School to be analysed and have an answer from genetics?

Eligibility: anyone interested from any COST Full Members / COST Cooperating Member countries, MC Observer from National Neighbour Countries and from Approved European RTD Organisations. People selected will be invited through the eCOST portal and will be fully reimbursed.

Final decisions about selected trainees will be released by December 15th 2019

Evaluation criteria

criteria	points	note
ITC*	1
ECI (<8 yrs from PhD)	1
Motivation letter	Max 8	Increment of 0.5

In case of tie, preference will be given to the youngest

In the final evaluation gender balance will be carefully taken into account.

*Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, the North Republic of Macedonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, the Republic of Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey