

Beyond academic boundaries: ASCS Malta explores essential life topics

The Association of Students of Commercial Studies (ASCS Malta) organised an engaging conference on 6 December 2023 at the Valletta Campus. The event focused on exploring essential life topics often overlooked in traditional classrooms, offering insights into areas like "A Beginner's Guide to Investing" and "Demystifying the Insurance Claims Process".

Attendees had the opportunity to gain practical knowledge beyond academic boundaries. Furthermore, the event aimed to provide a unique and enriching learning experience outside the standard academic curriculum.

Such initiatives "create dynamic frameworks which provide holistic learning" to further one of the main commitments of the Learning and teaching strategic theme of the University of Malta's Strategic Plan 2020-2025.

*Do you have an example of good QA practice at your unit which you would like us to share?
Get in touch with us at gac@um.edu.mt*