- | | | |
|---|--------|------------------|
| (i) during their first year of employment | ... | 4 working days |
| (ii) during their second year of employment | ... | 8 working days |
| (iii) during their third and subsequent years of employment | | 12 working days: |

Provided that when a Customary Holidays falls on a Sunday, the employee shall be entitled to a day off in lieu on such a day as the employer stipulates, but such a day or days shall be granted by the employer within three months.

Sick Leave

19. (1) Whole-time employees shall be entitled to eighteen days sick leave on full pay in every calendar year less any sickness benefit to which they may be entitled under the National Insurance Act, 1956:

Provided that a medical certificate certifying incapacity for work covering the period of absence is produced to the employer.

(2) Whole-time employees employed for less than one year shall be entitled to paid sick leave in proportion to the number of months in employment.

Bereavement Leave

20. Whole-time employees shall be allowed two days paid leave on the occasion of the death of any of the following relations: the wife or husband, the mother or father (or the person who at the time was in fact acting as the mother or father of the employee), the daughter or son and the sister or brother.

Waiting Time

21. An employee shall be entitled to the payment of the minimum remuneration applicable to him for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer or in any other place in connection with his employment unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances:—

- (a) without the employer's consent, expressed or implied;
- (b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;
- (c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon;
- (d) during recognised breaks for meals and rest, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

Tips

22. Tips earned by employees in the course of their duties shall not form part of their wages.

Retiring Age

23. In cases where the retiring age of a male employee is expected at the age of 60 years, such employee shall be given the opportunity by his employer to retain his employment beyond this age at least until the age of 61 years, provided that the employee in question shall still be allowed, if he so wishes, to retire at the age of 60 years.
