

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, LONDON.

JURISPRUDENCE.

Professor W. A. HUNTER, M.A., Barrister-at-Law.

A Public Introductory Lecture will be delivered on Thursday, the 23rd of January, 1879, at 7 P.M. Subject: "Jurisprudence, its object, methods, and place in legal education."

Two Courses of Lectures will be delivered in 1879, on Mondays and Wednesdays, from 7.30 to 8.30 P.M.

Fees:—for both Courses, £4 4s.; for a single Term, £2 12s 6d.

LENT TERM, commencing 27th January, 1879.

ANALYTICAL JURISPRUDENCE.

- I. Definition of "Law," "Sovereignty," "Obligation," "Sanction." Criticism of Austin's views. Relation of Law to Custom.
- II. Sources of Law. Jus Naturale, Jus gentium, Jus Civile. Modern Theories of Natural Law. Judge-made Law: Equity; Legislation.
- III. Classifications of Laws: Public, Private, Constitutional, Civil, Criminal, &c.
- IV. The most general terms used in Law: Right, Duty, Act, Forbearance, Person, Thing; Will, Intention, Motive, Negligence, Rashness; Ignorance, Error, mora, &c. &c.
- V. Interpretation of Law.
- VI. Codification.
- VII. Principles of Criminal Law and Theories of Punishment.

SUMMER TERM, commencing Monday, April 21st.

HISTORY OF LEGAL CONCEPTIONS AND INSTITUTIONS.

- I. Forms of Sovereignty: Theocracies, Secular Sovereignities; Early Popular Assemblies.

- II. The Family: Marital and Parental Relations.
- III. Slavery: Master and Servant; Employer and Workman.
- IV. Property in land, communal and individual. Feudalism.
- V. Contract.
- VI. Inheritance; History of Wills.
- VII. Courts of Law.
- VIII. Legal Procedure: ordeals, oaths, rules of evidence.
- IX. Crimes and Punishments.

HENRY MORLEY,

Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Laws.

TALFOURD ELY,

Secretary.

December 1878.