DANCING SCHOOL, R.A.F., LUQA

The Ballet being presented here to-night is composed of fifty-four children whose ages range from three to fifteen years, belonging all to Royal Air Force servicemen.

It is the result of the professional tuition and hard-sacrifice endurance by Mrs. Kath Miller during the last eighteen months. One would have to underline here that the teaching of dancing to girls of such tender age, is an ordeal of arduous task and prolonged practice which demands full dedication, zeal and intelligence of every individual girl.

However, the devotion given to the art of dancing by this group of children has achieved great success, and, Mrs. Miller, mother of four, feels particularly proud that she could instal in the minds of her pupils to perform their dances not simply because of their love towards art, but, to enhance the audiences to appreciate their talent in their classic performance and bring forth happiness to everyone present.

Further, one should not miss to mention that, Mrs. Miller keeps her school without any remuneration, whilst the parents provide and make all the costumes.

ST. MONICA ACCORDION ENSEMBLE

The St. Monica Accordion Ensemble was founded in 1961 by Sister Benjamina Portelli, L.R.S.M., of the Augustinian Order. Since then it has given 153 Concerts in Malta and Gozo, 26 of these Concerts were TV appearances, and 29 direct Broadcast over the Rediffusion.

The St. Monica Accordion Ensemble has been a regular performance at the Malta Cultural Institute Concerts, for the past 6 years; in fact it was in one of these recent concerts that this Ensemble celebrated the 150th Concert.

To celebrate the occasion, their composer/conductor Mr. Victor Zammit has made a special arrangement of Schubert Symphony No. 8 in B Minor and Mro. C. Pace's Fantasia Lirica for Pianoforte and Orchestra.

Latest success by the St. Monica Ensemble was a 30 minutes direct broadcast over the Radio Malta on January 2nd, when both Conductor Mr. Victor Zammit and founder Sister Benjamina Portelli were interviewed by Mr. L. Gatt about their work with young musicians.
